

COPS SEIZE TWO AND STOLEN AUTO; SHOOT ONE MAN

Recover Car Before Owner
Mile Away Misses It—Fugitive's Hat Shot Off.

Police Sergt. Frederick Maser, who was in the Military Intelligence during the war, and Sergt. Paul Byrne of the Wilson Avenue Station, Brooklyn, recovered a stolen automobile early to-day before its owner had reported it missing, and arrested two alleged thieves after shooting one of them.

They were going through the Ridgewood section of Brooklyn on a motorcycle with sidecar at 2:10 A. M. when they saw three men removing the spare tires from an automobile at St. Nicholas and Gates Avenues. The men ran, with the two policemen in pursuit.

Maser fired once in the air and then at one of the men, who stopped with a bullet in his right thigh. He said he was Edward Spire, twenty-two, of No. 435 Bleecker Street, Brooklyn. The police said he was a pugilist known as "Jack Gorman."

Maser fired at one of the other men, knocking off his hat, but he kept going. A man caught two blocks away in a restaurant said he was George Tropp, twenty-three, No. 570 Vincent Avenue, Brooklyn. He was charged with grand larceny. The third man escaped. Spire is a prisoner in Wyckoff Heights Hospital.

The automobile belonged to Willis Hunt and had been stolen at 1:50, forty minutes before, from in front of Arcadia Hall in Halsey Street, a mile from where it was found. The prisoners denied knowing anything about it.

FIRE PERILS DRIVE 200 INTO STREETS.

Occupants of Two Houses Seek Safety From Flames in Early Morning.

More than 200 persons were driven to the streets early to-day by fires in apartment buildings.

Mrs. Olive Gaston, who lives on the second floor of No. 1 Manhattan Avenue, awoke at 4 A. M. and saw in her mirror a glare reflected from the window of a house in the rear. She went to the window and saw flames in D. Ricard's show store on the ground floor of No. 1. The twenty families went into West 109th Street and Manhattan Avenue until the blaze was out.

At 5:30 A. M. Truck Company No. 40, just back from the Manhattan Avenue fire, was called to the six-story building No. 123 Amsterdam Avenue, where a blaze in the cellar had filled the house with smoke. Firemen had a busy half hour leading the twenty-four families out through the smoke.

Ten Horses Burned to Death.
Ten horses were burned to death at 5 A. M. today in Joseph Gray's stable, at No. 521 East 80th Street.

LITTLE BO PEEP

may lose her sheep, but never her sleep
in the

THIS LABEL SAFEGUARDS
YOU AGAINST IMITATIONS

Boys and girls love
the smooth warm
fabric, the full gus-set and the immense comfort of the flat seams.

At Good Stores

The E-Z Waist Co.
NEW YORK

Makers of Children's
"E-Z" Waist Union Suits,
Waists and Sleeping Garments
for Winter and Summer Wear.

Lord & Taylor

FIFTH AVENUE

The Demand Grows for Misses' Fur-Trimmed Coats

$75

TOMORROW a number of new corded Bolivia coats will be presented. Every model has doubled its becomingness by a luxurious fur collar of squirrel, beaver or wolf. A coat success in style and economy at $75

THIRD FLOOR

Black Lace Veils, 95c

Spanish veils that drape the season's smartest hats. Very unusual values. 1½ yards long with a border all around.

GROUND FLOOR

Vicuna Scarfs $12.95

Delightfully long and broad, and Oh! so soft to wrap around one's neck. Made of pure vicuna with contrasting border. Belt and pockets, too!

GROUND FLOOR

Special Purchase

Glove Silk, Knit Underwear

Glove Silk Vests, $1.75
Bodice tops, hemstitched.

Glove Silk Bloomers, $2.50
Cut full and reinforced.

Cotton Union Suits, 95c
Made with band tops and reinforced.

Cotton Bloomers, 95c
Pink, white, black, taupe, navy; all reinforced.

Union Suits, $2.75
Silk-keen and wool, Swiss ribbed, knee or ankle length.

GROUND FLOOR

Paris Model Hats, $15 Greatly Reduced

Carefully chosen from our French Room selection—these models are exact replicas of Paris styles. There are practically no two alike in the group. New arrivals, all of them, they are reduced in price now—when you need them most. Restaurant and street hats they are, in black and the smartest Fall tones.

FOURTH FLOOR

New English Wool Stockings Greatly Reduced to $1.95

Heather mixtures in brown and grey. Soft, heavy quality, finely ribbed. Truly a most unusual value at the beginning of the season.

GROUND FLOOR

Strap Pumps $8.75 Black Satin

They are very new, these one- and two-strap styles made in tan, Norwegian or black calf-skin with low military heels.

This is a recent model too, the sandal strap pump for evening wear. Full French or baby Louis heel.

SECOND FLOOR

Excellent Values in Women's

Fur-Trimmed Coats at $85

These are two special models (illustrated) that owe their distinction to enveloping wolf collars and cuffs. They are draped of the colorful panvelaine into wrap or straight line silhouettes. Specialized tomorrow at $85

Sports Skirts $9.75

A skirt-maker tailored many odds and ends of his smartest sports material into a collection of skirts for us. Hence models entirely distinctive, at a price remarkably moderate.

Sweaters $9.75

Fashion now demands that the sweater match the skirt, hence this soft mohair Tuxedo is woven in the usual skirt colors—navy, black, brown, henna, and tan.

THIRD FLOOR

Two-Clasp Glace Gloves, $1.45

It is little wonder that these gloves fairly walk out of the store, for they are the kind of value one very seldom sees. Beautifully made and finished with Paris point embroidery and over-seam sewn. The new Fall shades of tan, mode and grey are side by side with black and white.

GROUND FLOOR

Lovely Woolens from Paris

Rodier's Perllaine

$6.50 Yard

A handsome rough-faced material for distinctive frocks and suits. 54 inches wide.

Sports Suiting

$5 Yard

A very soft-finished granite weave fabric for coats and suits; shown in sports colors. 52 inches wide.

SECOND FLOOR

Beaver Scarfs, $49.50

Lovely Small Furs Very Modestly Priced

Despite the fact that our fur scarfs are marked this season much lower than for several seasons past, the furs are of superior quality. Your choice at $24.50

of scarfs in taupe and brown fox, squirrel, Jap marten, and mole! You can find a variety at

$49.50

of mink, fox, lynx, skunk, beaver and sable scarfs!

FOURTH FLOOR

Imported and Domestic

Handbags, $5

Bags that would ordinarily sell for considerably more. Leather bags, silk, duvetyn and velvet bags—all of these are included in the assortment.

GROUND FLOOR

A Week-end Special

Misses' Corsets $2.95

This is an extremely well-designed corset, short, lightly boned and made with elastic girdle top. The material is a good quality of figured broche.

SECOND FLOOR

The Boys' Section

Blanket Robes

$4.75

The best way to keep your boy from shivering these chilly mornings and evenings. These bath robes button up to the neck. Blue, grey and brown shades. Sizes 6 to 18 years.

Two Trouser Norfolks, $15

They are the suits that have made such a great impression on mothers who have seen them. Exceptionally well-tailored jackets, mohair-lined, both knickers full-lined. All-wool mixed chevrons. 8 to 18 years.

Chinchilla Coats, $12.50

Very warmly lined with worsted for Winter weather. All-wool, in good shades of blue, oxford. 3 to 10 years. Sketched at right below.

School Coats, $17.50

Convertible collars button well up around the neck, linings are wool. Colors are Oxford, grey and heather mixtures and material is all-wool. 11 to 18 years. Above center.

FOURTH FLOOR

For Young Girls

School
Coats
Special
$18.50

Boyish double-breasted model, belted, with pockets. Flannel lined, made of all-wool chinchilla, navy, reindeer or brown. 6 to 14 years.

Junior Girls' Frocks, $16.50

A slim youthful style with its plaited skirt and embroidered bodice. Navy blue only. Sizes 13, 15 and 17 years.

FOURTH FLOOR

Smart Lace Shoes

For Children

They are tan of course, for that is the best color for school wear. Sizes for children and growing girls, 5-8, $4; 8½-11, $5.50; 11½-12, $6.75; 12½-13, $8.50

Big Girls' Oxfords, $8.50

Sturdy Blucher Oxfords in dark tan or black. There is also a dark tan one-strap pump with perforated vamp at the same price. 2½-7.

FOURTH FLOOR